89.98 +/- Acres

Is a rare offering - 89+ acres that borders both the Arkansas River and Fourmile Creek! From your own private shoreline, you could fish from the banks of the Arkansas River (over a half mile of river frontage) or in the eddies of Fourmile Creek (over a quarter mile of creek frontage), watch the river flow under a canopy of cottonwood trees or launch your canoe, kayak or raft! You can also ride your horse across a ford in the river to connect to more than 7 miles of equestrian and walking trails on the Canon City River Walk. Enjoy a campfire or barbeque by the giant cottonwood trees, hear the sound of the rushing waters and see the sun dance over the surrounding mountains. The terrain is flat with built in irrigation ditches for developing & harvesting lush hay meadows or other farming crops. The property is zoned agricultural and has no covenants! Purchase all acres of this unique river front property and shape it into a working farm and ranch, riverside retreat or equestrian facility; or, purchase a 36+ or 53+ acre portion of the property. Each parcel has Arkansas River frontage with plenty of acreage to select the perfect home site. Tap into adjoining underground utilities & have ready access to city amenities – located just minutes away from the property. It borders the city limits of Canon City so paved city streets off quiet cul-de-sacs provide your entry to the ranch. This area offers year-round recreation with mild winters, 300+ days of Colorado blue skies & numerous nearby attractions. Rainbow Run Ranch is an extraordinary opportunity to own vacant riverfront property that has endless possibilities!
