Concerning adverse material facts, Montana law provides that the Owner is/are obligated to disclose any adverse material facts that concern the Property and that are actually known to the Owner. The Owner is not obligated to investigate the Property in preparing this Disclosure Statement. The Owner, other than having lived at and/or owned the Property, has no greater knowledge than what could be obtained by the Buyer's careful inspection.

This disclosure statement is not a warranty of any kind by the Owner, the Seller Agent, or any authorized representative of the Owner involved in the sale of the Property, and it is not a contract between the Owner and Buyer. This Disclosure Statement is not a substitute for any inspections the Buyer may wish to obtain. The Buyer is encouraged to consult their own independent inspectors to aid in the Buyer's due diligence prior to closing on the purchase of the Property.

This Disclosure Statement must be provided no later than contemporaneously with the execution of a real estate purchase contract. Unless the Buyer and Owner have otherwise agreed in writing, any contract for the purchase of the Property is not effective until 3 days after the Buyer has received this Disclosure Statement, and during that delay Buyer may withdraw or rescind any contract to purchase the Property without penalty.

The Owner declares that the Owner has prepared this Disclosure Statement and any attachments thereto based on any adverse material facts known to the Owner. Owner hereby authorizes providing a copy of this Statement to any person or entity in connection with any actual or anticipated sale of the Property. Owner further agrees to indemnify and hold any and all real estate agents involved, directly or indirectly, in the purchase and sale of the Property, harmless from all claims for damages based upon the disclosures made in this Disclosure Statement along with the failure of the Owner to disclose any adverse material facts known to the Owner.

This Disclosure Statement is considered a disclosure by the Owner only and not the Seller Agent or other authorized representative of the Seller. The Seller is not responsible for misstatements or errors in this Disclosure Statement that are based on information the Seller obtained from a reliable third-party, including a local governing agency.
