

Secluded & Private Pilgrim Creek, Sanders County, Montana, 50.00 Acres

$599,000

- Big Game, Off-Road, Snow sports, Stream/River, Timberland, Wildlife Viewing

Experience the serenity of nearly 51 untouched acres nestled entirely within US Forest Service land. This off-grid paradise is accessed via a Forest Service Road, offering a unique opportunity for those seeking a retreat, hunting destination, or the ideal site for a cabin, camper, or secluded home. Set in a mountain valley, the property boasts two branches of Pilgrim Creek meandering through dense, unlogged timber, creating a haven for elk and deer that frequently roam the area. From this old mining claim, surrounded by thousands of acres of pristine forest, you'll find endless roads and trails to explore, making it the ultimate base camp for adventure or a tranquil escape from the bustle of daily life. Let yourself disappear into the woods for peaceful solitude, where the gentle sounds of birds, flowing water, and rustling trees provide a soothing backdrop. Whether you're drawn to big game hunting or simply living off the land, this property offers a gateway to true wilderness and a lifestyle immersed in nature's quiet beauty. Experience NW Montana at its finest!
