

Threemile Park 80, Fremont County, Colorado, 80.00 Acres

$199,000

- Agriculture, Off-Road, Wildlife Viewing

80 acres just 10 minutes from downtown Cañon City! This large acreage parcel offers direct access off a well-maintained county road, just one mile from paved Highway 50. Power runs through the middle portion of the property, making future development convenient. A retention pond provides water for livestock, enhancing the land's agricultural potential. The western side of the parcel features elevated terrain with ideal building sites that capture views of the surrounding meadows and mountainsides. A great blend of accessibility, utility, and scenic beauty close to town. This land is only minutes from publicly accessible BLM land with UTV trails as well as the Arkansas River which offers gold medal trout fishing and world class white water rafting. This is the perfect opportunity for someone seeking a secluded property that remains conveniently close to a historic Colorado town with restaurants, shopping, recreation, and medical facilities. NO covenants or HOA and offers numerous options for building and/or development. The land has an active grazing lease that helps keep the annual tax burden low. With such close proximity to the Arkansas River, The Royal Gorge, and public lands there are endless recreational opportunities here. Go off-roading, hunting, or hiking along the BLM trails nearby. Go fly fishing on the Arkansas River. Take a white water rafting trip or a train ride through the Royal Gorge. Call listing agent today to get out there and see it in person!
