

Tract 2 County Line Road, Jersey County, Illinois, 16.00 Acres

$265,000

Located just minutes from I-255, this 16 acre tract offers a great mix of open ground and rural charm. With plenty of space for a custom home, small farm, or recreational use, the possibilities are wide open. Previously utilized as pastureland, the property could potentially be suitable again for livestock or hobby farming. Multiple tracts are available in this developing area, giving buyers flexible options to fit their needs. Property is subject to final survey. Buyer to verify availability of local utilities. Taxes are estimated due to the parcel being divided from a larger tract and should be verified with the county.
