

Phantom Canyon Sanctuary, Teller County, Colorado, 37.38 Acres

$199,000

- Agriculture, Big Game, Off-Road, Pond, Timberland, Wildlife Viewing

Imagine the wind whistling through the pines, a bugling elk in the distance, colorful aspens in the fall, and trading stories around a campfire under a star filled night. The Phantom Canyon Sanctuary is a rare find in the Colorado high country and checks off many of the boxes for a premium mountain getaway. The property features a dramatic ridgeline point where there is an old camping shed and a composite deck. The land has almost everything you could ask for including privacy/seclusion, level building sites, huge rock features, and a seasonal creek that feeds into a small pond. It would be a great retreat for family & friends and those who enjoy camping, hiking and hunting.

General Information

This area is tucked away through a locked gated access off the historic Phantom Canyon Road near Victor, Colorado. The Phantom Canyon Road is part of the Gold Belt Tour which is a Colorado Scenic and Historic Byway and a National Scenic Byway. Drive the Gold Belt Tour and retrace the historic travel routes connecting Cripple Creek and Victor Mining District, site of the world's largest gold rush, to the communities of Florence, Cañon City and Florissant. The property features a prominent ridge point that drops down into a seasonal creek with timbered hillsides full of pine, spruce, aspens and unique rock formations. The land features stunning views of the snowcapped Sangre De Cristo Range with gorgeous building sites for a dream mountain cabin. In addition, the land directly borders BLM land so it is ideal for the recreational and outdoor enthusiast, a family legacy property, hunting retreat, log cabin and much more!

Accessibility

The property is situated within Phantom Canyon Ranches and accessed off a private road which connects to a locked entrance on Phantom Canyon Road. The property is a short drive to Victor and also Cripple Creek for gambling fun and dining options. Colorado Springs is a short 90-minute drive from the property.

Water and Utilities

The property does not have a well and the area is off grid. Plenty of sun hitting this property and usable land to put a large or small solar array. Other cabins within Phantom Canyon Ranches have solar systems.

Wildlife and Recreation

The land is a recreational haven for many activities. Enjoy hiking, ATV use, camping, hunting, shooting, and more. Elk, mule deer, and turkey are seen regularly in and around the land, often grazing in the meadows or near the spring fed pond. The property is located in GMU 581 which offers OTC licenses for 2nd and 3rd rifle seasons for bull elk. The property adjoins 1,000's of acres of BLM lands, offering expanded opportunities to hunt and explore the back country. The property is only a short drive to Skagway Reservoir which offers great fishing opportunities for rainbow and brown trout. Other day trip recreational attractions might include a visit to Victor or Cripple Creek, exploring Phantom Canyon Road, rafting or fly-fishing on the Arkansas River or riding the Cripple Creek & Victor Narrow Gauge Railroad.
