

Please call Locate Service before any digging, these are rough guidelines. Any placement of lines are approximates as I was not present for most and do not assume any responsibility for map.

I am unsure of electric lines from Avista to meter and from meter to house. you can see a low spot from the well to the house.

This map was provided to us by the previous owner. We have no information as to it's accuracy and make no warranties nor assume any liability for the information contained herein. Purchaser is invited to verify the information contained hereon during their due diligence period. Ashworth/D & B Trust dated 12.20.2005. 2/19/20