$584,000.00

- Agriculture, House

Among the green forests and mountains of Western Montana, you can find your dream home on 100 acres of woods and meadows. This area is an outdoor lover's dream with mostly public lands, water and ever changing seasons. The owners are motivated to find the right people to enjoy this exclusive property.

A liberal conservation easement protects the natural beauty, fertile soil (no rocks) and abundant wildlife while encouraging farming and forestry. There are ponds and gardens with mature fruit trees; apple, pear, plums and a variety of berry bushes, an irrigation ditch for watering, outbuildings and much more. The well has plenty of excellent water.

The home has a lot of wood interior with nearly 3500 sq. ft. It boasts an open floorplan with Scandinavian flair. There are 4 bedrooms, 2 baths and a large practical kitchen. There is wood heat and two heat pumps for additional heating and cooling.

The surroundings are maintained with a defensible space for wildfire safety and offer a great environment to roam, ride and discover.
