

Off-Grid with Views, Deer Lodge County, Montana, 40.71 Acres

$95,000

Take a look at this remote property that is off the beaten path, yet still only a half hour drive to the small town of Anaconda, MT. This 40 acre, off-grid property will require a solar system, or another off-grid source to generate electricity. There is a building established in the NW corner of the property and a small stream cuts across the SW corner. There is also a small pond toward the northeastern corner of the property. The privacy received that comes with owning land that is away from crowds will allow you to have your own little getaway. It is close enough to town to spend just a quick weekend in the woods, yet far enough away to enjoy ultimate privacy at a year-round property if so desired. The winter can be harsh, but beautiful snow-capped Pintler mountain peaks across the valley from this property are to die for! Come see for yourself!
