

Full Of Hope, Sanders County, Montana, 2.08 Acres

$149,900

- Big Game, Wildlife Viewing

Seller financing available! This 2.08 acre parcel features an exceptionally spacious home site with excellent year-round access and mountain views in a highly desirable area near the town of Thompson Falls. The property offers a great mix of trees and meadows and adjacent greenbelt areas for extra elbow room. With abundant wildlife and the Clark Fork River and National Forest nearby, it's an amazing place to live and a perfect launching point for all outdoor recreation, including hunting, fishing, hiking, mountain biking, boating, and ATV'ing. Trails, parks, and river access are just moments away. It's ready to build with power, phone, high-speed fiber optics, and private road to the lot line. Lot has septic approval, and the corners are marked. This land and surrounding area have been well managed to open up views, reduce wildfire danger, and improve wildlife habitat. For those wanting even more space, an adjacent 3+ acre parcel is also for sale. Buy one or combine them for over 5 acres of peaceful living in a premier location!

This lot is located within the Waterfront West subdivision which includes 6 lots, which are all large and spacious so everyone has plenty of room. Each lot in the subdivision comes with a 1/6 ownership share in approximately 3 acres of additional greenbelt area. Light covenants protect the integrity of the area and maintain property values.

This quiet, residential area is located on the other side of the Clark Fork River from the quaint, small town of Thompson Falls that has great dining, historic buildings, and tons of activities for everyone to enjoy.
