

Turnpike Hunting Retreat, Pushmataha County, Oklahoma, 287.00 Acres

$789,250

Beautiful property in the hills of Southeastern Oklahoma. This property is located on either side of the Indian Nation Turnpike and has easy access off the Daisy, OK exit, being less than 10 minutes away. This property is a deer hunters dream, having years of history with big deer and several Boone and Crocket worthy deer. Property has 3 creeks that run throughout most of the year, along with scattered meadows that meander through the fertile timbered bottoms. Around the borders of the property are foot hills of the surrounding mountains creating good elevation change in the area. This property has perfect deer habitat, making it truly a hidden gem with proven results. Wild game includes White Tailed Deer, Eastern Wild Turkey, Black bear, and several other small games species. There is an old rock built house that could be the perfect hunting cabin or get-away, having electric and well water available.
