Access: State Hwy 270 frontage.

Water: 2 ponds and over 1 mile of Sandy Creek frontage which is a live creek.

Climate: Approx. 42 +/- inches of rainfall per year.

Game: This property has Whitetail Deer, Eastern Wild Turkey and wild hogs. The property has a perfect mix of habitat with its native pastures and scattered timber that were left along Sandy Creek and the various hills and draws. Pittsburg county ranks #1 out of 77 counties in total Whitetail Deer harvest and ranks highly in Cy Curtis and Boone and Crocket Deer. The property also has small game species such as rabbit, squirrel and dove. Non-game species such as bobcat, fox, coyote and hog also frequent the property. Utilities: Rural Water and electric along the state highway.

Broker Notes: This is an excellent multi use property. It is set up for cattle and has been cross fenced to maximize carrying capacity. The mix of timber and native pastures along with the abundance of water also make this an excellent Whitetail and recreational property. The 2 acre pond provides duck hunting and fishing opportunities. The over 1 mile of Sandy Creek also provides year around fishing opportunities. This property has a great access and allows the owner to be in Stuart, Ok. in minutes and Mcalester, Ok. within 20 minutes.
