

A Piece of History, Madison County, Illinois, 25.00 Acres

$995,000

This property offers over 25 acres of undeveloped land in the heart of Alton. The land is mostly level to slightly rolling and has been platted to outline the possibilities for a development. In addition to the land offering, there is a 35,000 sq ft building that was formerly used as the Ursuline Convent. The structure consists of 3 levels and includes kitchen facilities, dorm rooms, classrooms, gathering areas, and a chapel. Other buildings include a garage, laundry area, boiler building, and small residence. This is a unique offering with lots of possibilities.
