

Montana Elk Country, Granite County, Montana, 22.72 Acres

$110,000

Water! Check out this 22.7 acre property that is well off the grid in the heart of SW Montana elk country! The property is very remote, offering ultimate privacy and little hunting pressure making it the ultimate getaway or hunting camp. No special permit is needed to hunt elk in this district as it is a general area. Perhaps the best feature of this property is a natural spring that can easily be developed, saving thousands of dollars from the cost of drilling a well. Also, the owner cut out a building site in the Northeast corner of the property. The site offers mountain views and is adjacent to the Forest Service so you can build a cabin and hunt right out the back door.
