$1,450,000

- Big Game, Equestrian, Fishing, House, Income producing, Lake/Pond, Pond, River Frontage, Waterfowl, Wildlife Viewing

There is absolutely nothing quite like this property! Let me explain! This luxurious home has 4,606sq feet, 4 bedrooms, 3.5 baths, 32 ft ceilings with mesquite tongue and groove flooring, custom stone fireplace, lights, fixtures, appliances and much more. It is truly one of a kind home situated on 45 acres on the banks of the Red River in Belcher, LA with the most incredible outdoor entertaining area, you can hunt trophy, Whitetail deer, ducks, dove and enjoy some of the best fishing around. The home has three levels, a 1,000 square-foot screened in porch with kitchen and cooking area. Back in 1975 the core of engineers straightened up the Red River which left an oxbow, mile long lake just outside the front door of the property, it left a smaller lake which is right in the duck flyway making hunting exceptional. There are four outbuildings, loafing sheds for the horses it is fenced and cross fenced for your cattle or horse, Horse barn, a state of the art round riding arena and two RV hook ups on the property. It has small chicken houses if you want to grow your own chickens or eggs. You have a solar system sitting on poles just out side the back door. Whole house generator and MUCH MORE! This would be an excellent property to do an Airbnb, or a 501(c) charity project or you can live on the property miles from the major cities. But then Shreveport is only 20 miles away and Texarkana is about 37 minutes to the north on Highway 49. The horse track in Bossier City is about 19 minutes from the property. Also located in Bossier city is horseshoe, Margaritaville, and several other major casinos sitting right on the red River.
