

Secluded & Private Pilgrim Creek, Sanders County, Montana, 50.00 Acres

$575,000

- Big Game, Off-Road, Snow sports, Stream/River, Timberland, Wildlife Viewing

Completely surrounded by USFS, this 50.12 acre parcel is the perfect retreat or hunting spot. With seasonal Pilgrim Creek and Telegraph Creek running through the property, this is great wildlife habitat. The property is covered in thick trees and has varied topography in a sheltered valley. Enjoy a small campsite, and with some clearing, this property could accommodate an off-grid cabin or home. Located just adjacent to a USFS trail head and a full system of Forest Service roads, this is the perfect launching point for snowmobiling, ATVs, hiking, mountain biking, horse back riding, and hunting. If privacy and silence is what you seek, this is the property for you! Enjoy almost 51 acres completely surrounded by USFS land! This off grid, ultimate survival property is accessed from a Forest Service Road. This incredible retreat or hunting property, ready for your cabin, camper, or off-grid home, is tucked in a mountain valley with two branches of Pilgrim Creek running through. With thick timber throughout, this property has been used as a retreat and a hunting destination. Elk and deer frequent the property, and this land has not been developed or logged. Surrounded by thousands of acres of US Forest Service, there are miles and miles of roads and trails to explore. Use this as your base camp or vanish into the trees for quiet seclusion. Immerse yourself in nature and soak up the stillness of birds, running water, and whispering trees. The perfect spot to vanish away from it all, this property is the corridor to great big game hunting and living off the land. The property is located approximately 130 miles from Spokane Washington Airport, 140 miles to the airport in Missoula, Montana, and 144 miles to Kalispell, Montana. Come experience this forested land and explore the vast USFS land that surrounds you!
