

Tongue River Masterpiece, Custer County, Montana, 20.13 Acres

$1,595,000

Welcome to this immaculately maintained masterpiece that is constructed from massive, hand-peeled logs by Montana Log Homes. This is a rare opportunity to live comfortably in a serene country setting where it is only a five minute drive to the conveniences of town. There are many updates throughout the 4,458 square feet of living space that is situated on 20 acres, most of which is irrigated. Step inside, and you will find picturesque, modern Montana living with a rustic touch and charming decor. The open concept main level is perfect for entertaining and features custom maple floors, modern quartz counter tops, and a large kitchen island designed elegantly just for this home. Two soaring stone fireplaces add a cozy feel that will make you wish you could stay forever. Several entryways lead out to two large decks where you can soak in the hot tub and take in stunning views of the Tongue River bottom and beyond from the perfectly positioned porch swing. Other outdoor entertainment includes a pergola-covered fireplace and a grain silo that has been converted and customized into a fun entertainment space. Back inside, the second level showcases a vast master bedroom with its own deck, a harmonious office space, and a sitting area that can be tailored to suit a new owner's needs. The finished basement includes a large entertainment/family room that is the perfect place to keep cool during the hottest of the summer days, a spacious bedroom and full bathroom, a laundry room featuring ample counter space, and lots of storage. There is plenty more storage and room for animals in the two car attached garage, a 20x20 garage/shop built in 2019, a 20x30 barn/shop, and dog kennels. Come live the Montana lifestyle!
