

A Privileged Unique Position, 5.00 Acres

$3,200,000 NZD

This beautiful architecturally collaborated home offers extensive features and must appeal to the most discerning buyer looking for a premier lifestyle experience.

Located above Bay View, a sought after and coveted area within close proximity to Napier and Hawke's Bay Airport, you have the best of both worlds.

The property is elevated on a private 1.8336 hectare site with the most amazing ocean and rural views, from Mahia Peninsula to Cape Kidnappers.

Constructed in the late 1990s this 341 square metre home has been modernized and refurbished to a high standard. The house includes open plan kitchen/dining, separate large living lounge area, office, laundry, separate toilet, double integral garage with extensive storage and workshop on the lower level. Upstairs there are four bedrooms, including master with an ensuite, walk in wardrobe and private Romeo/Juilet patio which is sited to enjoy the encompassing views. There is also a large family bathroom and separate toilet upstairs.

This unique property has been built to capture the all day sun and each bedroom has been perfectly positioned to take advantage of the encompassing views.

The multiple outdoor living areas have also been cleverly positioned to capitalise on the sun and shelter that the house design offers. The living areas are located on the lower level which flow onto multiple outdoor living areas which have also been cleverly designed to follow the sun and provide shelter for entertaining and relaxation.

The property is fenced into two paddocks, house water is provided by rainwater and there is also further security through access to a community water scheme.

Properties of this calibre very rarely come to the market. This stunning home has been owned and cherished by the vendors from the day it was built.
