Idyllic Tussock Property: Perfect for Recreation and Livestock Farming

Located 19km inland via Bucklands Crossing from Waikouaiti, East Otago, New Zealand "Bendoran" has been a cherished part of the Malloch family heritage for over 120 years. This expansive property boasts a range of significant improvements which include a four-stand woolshed with covered yards, cattle yards, and a self-contained musterers hut complete with a reliable spring water supply, and workshop storage shed.

Beyond its farming capabilities, "Bendoran" presents a unique opportunity to establish a large hunting retreat. Its proximity to Dunedin City and the airport makes it an ideal location for a getaway. The property offers ample space to construct your dream hunting lodge, complementing the existing infrastructure.

The natural beauty of "Bendoran" is truly remarkable. It features extensive natural bush blocks, including a 570 acre QE2 reserve, and expansive ridges and gullies that create a perfect environment for deer and other wildlife. The property is further enhanced by stunning sea views to the east and rolling hills in all other directions, providing a serene and private setting.

Bendoran is currently leased (expiring 30 March 2025) running 2100 crossbred ewes and 500 hoggets with the majority of lambs sold as forward stores. There are 150 cows calving on the property with calves sold in the Autumn.

Whether you are looking to continue its legacy as a productive farm or develop it into a premier hunting retreat, "Bendoran" offers endless possibilities in a picturesque and secluded environment.
