$525,000

This 66-acre property in Cooper County has a great mix of features for hunting, recreation, and return! With 38 acres of tillable land, there is solid income potential, along with the perfect setup for food plots.

The rest of the land is loaded with thick brush, mature timber, and a deep, winding creek—ideal for deer and turkey. It's an excellent spot for hunting, with natural funnels and pinch points. Bedding areas are already in place, and the block of timber allows you to hunt on any wind direction. The property also has a pond tucked away on the East side.
